

NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY, SHEPARD BROAD LAW
CENTER
LAW LIBRARY & TECHNOLOGY CENTER

SPANISH LEGAL RESOURCES ON THE INTERNET

Department of State- Bureau of European and Eurasian Affairs Country Information

<http://www.state.gov/p/eur/ci/sp/>

Includes links to Background Reports, Human Rights Reports, Country Commercial Guides and other reports, prepared by U.S government agencies about Spain.

Findlaw

<http://www.findlaw.com/12international/countries/es.html>

A listing of many links to Spanish legal resources, including:

- Civil Legislation of Catala. Full text of Catalan Civil Law Acts (in Catalan) and many Spanish Civil Law Acts (in Spanish). From the Department of Private Law of the University of Girona (Catalonia, Spain).
- Civil Code. Full text of the Spanish Civil Code (in Spanish) from the Department of Private Law of the University of Girona
- Boletín Oficial del Estado (BOE). Spanish government's official state journal
- Constitution. Provides text of the Constitution of Spain (in English)

The Global Legal Information Network (GLIN)

<http://www.glin.gov>

A database of laws, regulations, and other legal sources. The documents included in the database are contributed by the governments of the members from the original, official texts are deposited, by agreement of the members, in a server located at the Library of Congress. Only summaries of the laws are available.

Governments on the WWW: Spain

<http://www.gksoft.com/govt/en/es.html>

Contains links on to national, regional and municipal institutions

Guide to Law Online – Law Library of Congress

<http://www.loc.gov/law/guide/spain.html#legal>

A collection of annotated links to internet sources of interest to legal researchers. Emphasis is on laws, regulations, court decisions and political institutions.

Guide to Legal Research in Spain

<http://www.nyulawglobal.org/globalex/Spain.htm>

A feature of GlobalLex (<http://www.nyulawglobal.org/globalex/>). Author Olga Cabrero holds a law degree from the University of Barcelona School of Law where she is also currently enrolled in a History Degree Program. She completed her internships with Cornell Law Library (Ithaca, New York) in May 2000 and October 2001.

A Guide to the Spanish Legal System

<http://www.llrx.com/features/spain.htm>

First appeared in the January 15, 2002 edition of llrx – the Law Librarian's Resource Exchange. This resource regularly features an article on a country's legal system, prepared by a lawyer or law librarian from the country.

Martindale Hubbell – Spain – Law Digest

Lexis – Legal Reference

Also in print in the Law Library's Reference collection: REF KF 190 .M37

News Links

There are many web sites that provide links to newspapers, wires services and radio and TV stations in foreign countries. Here are two sites that link primarily to foreign newspapers (some English sources available).

<http://www.thepaperboy.com/country1.cfm?PaperCountry=Spain>

<http://www.onlinenewspapers.com/spain.htm>

Página Juridical – Spanish Legal Page

<http://civil.udg.es/pagina>

A comprehensive site, with links to Spanish legislation, case law, political institutions, major world newspapers and wire services, and related areas. Contains extensive links to European legal materials.

Portals to the World - Selected Internet Resources: Spain

<http://www.loc.gov/rr/international/hispanic/spain/spain.html>

Links to electronic resources are created and maintained by the Library of Congress Hispanic Division.

Resources for Spain

<http://www.ku.edu/~iberia/ssphs/spainresources.html>

This site, provided by the University of Kansas, includes hundreds of organized links to historical associations, bibliographic resources, libraries, archives, museums and publishers.

Yahoo Espana

<http://es.yahoo.com>